CAPACITY AND EXPERIENCE

ITL Communication & Design has been working in the arena of social development, public health and socio-economic justice since 2000. We have consistently build our skills base and experience in the areas of public health, social justice, human rights and pro-poor policy research.

All members of the team have had extensive experience working across the region with government departments, international funding agents, research houses, chapter 9 institutions, university departments and observatories, and health agencies. We are well versed in working with multiple stakeholders active in the development and research sectors.

Our raison d'être is the production of high quality publication services including:

- ▶ Design & layout
- ▶ Writing & editing
- ▶ Case studies & success stories
- ▶ Research & data representation
- ▶ Publishing & printing
- ▶ Minute taking & report writing

We have experience in, and understand the critical nature of:

The urgency of deadlines and delivery turnaround times

The processes of client input and changes

Ensuring the best value for the available budget for our clients

Providing the most creative solutions for the brief.

testimonials

Short excerpts from testimonials from some of our clients are included below.

ANNA KOBLANCK, [ 011 731 3078] International Finance Corporation: 'Huge thanks to all three of you for producing the [work] in no time and for making sure it got to the event in London in time – you are fantastic!'

---

GAVIN TOET, [ 011 686 4200] Conduit Capital: 'I attach the signed approval of draft 4 for the Conduit Integrated Annual report – 2014. As always – the Team never ceases to amaze us, we really appreciate all of your efforts and well done on producing an excellent result – we are eternally grateful.'

---

BARBARA KENYON, GRIP: 'Know that you have left a lasting legacy with the work you have done for GRIP. We have photocopied a lot of the pamphlets and they are already being circulated. Many thanks to all involved.'

---

MTHOKOZISI MBAMBO, [076 333 9392] SOUTH AFRICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION: 'We would like to convey our great thanks in working under tremendous pressure towards ensuring that we meet our submission deadlines to Parliament.'

---

BRETT OLIVIER, [082 801 1444] FLUIDLINE: 'It has been great working with the ITL team, the service is always at a high level and the fast turnaround on urgent items has been invaluable to our business on many occasions.'

---

DAVID EVERATT [011 717 7280], Gauteng City-Region Ob servatory: 'I unreservedly recommend ITL. We have only ever had great service from them, and that is both rare and to be valued.'

---

ZORORO MAVINDIDZE, [011 482 1913] Freedom of Expression Institute: 'We love the final product and appreciate all the assistance provided in making this happen.'

---

NINA ROSSOUW [nina.rossouw@giz.de], GIZ: 'Thanks for your excellent work. I have already signed off on your invoice and expressed great satisfaction with ITL's work. In terms of your recommendations, we incorporated every single one of them. The comments also proved very valuable (thanks for drawing our attention to this!).'

---

CLAIR TAYLOR [072 341 3898], Gun Free South Africa: Thank you so much for the amazing work you did translating pages of statistics on guns and gun violence in South Africa into an accessible and eye-catching one page poster. Your ability to convey complex terms was so creative too. Not only did you do this, you then converted the pages and pages of stats into an attractive document with creative flair.

TRACEY NALEDI, Management Sciences for Health: 'We have found ITL to be reliable, creative and responsive to our needs. They always deliver work on time, sometimes under very tight deadlines.'
